

Mandip SahotaTrustee of Batley Multi Academy Trust (BMAT)

Mandip is co-founder of Strategies & Stories, a social impact agency combining practical advice with powerful insights to help clients tackle some of society's toughest challenges. With a career spanning 20 years in law, government and the nonprofit sector, Mandip is passionate about collaboration across industries. A former civil servant, she advised Ministers on international initiatives at the Foreign & Commonwealth Office and is the former CEO of a social inclusion charity.

She supports a number of organisations and is on the Board of Virgin Money Foundation, LSE Faith Centre and is a member of the Centre for Public Impact's People's Panel.