Maurice spent the first ten years of his career in banking and finance. After running successful businesses in the food, retail and leisure sectors, for the past 20 years, he has worked for the Conservative Party. His role since November 2015 is Regional Field Director responsible for the campaigning organisation and operations in the 58 parliamentary constituencies which form the Eastern zone of the country. He is also responsible for the project management of the detailed processes for the selection of my Party's Parliamentary, Police Commissioner, Local Government and Mayoral candidates.

He is a founder member of the Institute of Leadership and Management (MInstLM).

Working closely with the Co-Heads, the Finance Director and Governance colleagues, Maurice pays particular interest to the medium to long term budgetary forecasts to ensure the continuing financial stability of the Trust.
